Martin Luther King Day of Service: Greeting Card Creator

Volunteer Task Description

| | |
|--|--|
| Agency: | Associated Youth Services (AYS) |
| Job Title: | Birthday Card Creator |
| Description: | Come join us on MLK Day of Service to make sure that each of youth and foster parents receive hand-made cards for special occasions! |
| What is meaningful about this position? | So many of the youth we serve have lost hope; they believe they are alone and that no one cares about them or their future. Thankfully, our youth can depend on friends like you. By working with AYS, you are sending a strong message to our youth that our community cares about them and sees great things for them. |
| Duties: | Volunteers will be learning about different papercraft techniques, including quilling, and then using what they learn to create greeting cards. All materials will be provided. |
| Dates Needed: | Monday, January 16th, 2012 from 10am-12pm |
| Length of Commitment: | One time |
| Number of volunteers needed: | 30, Groups and families are welcome |
| Location of Volunteer Work: | 803 Armstrong Ave, Lower Level Kansas City, KS 66101 |
| Age Requirement: | 16+, Under 16 can volunteer if parent/group leader is present |
| Desired Qualifications: | Volunteers should be able to work as part of a team and follow instructions for a craft project. Volunteers should expect to enjoy some camaraderie and utilize their artistic talents. No actual artistic talent is required. |
| Training provided: | AYS will provide the materials and instruction. |
| Supervisor, phone, email: | Teri Kriege, 913-831-2820, tkriege@aysusa.org |
